

Chapter Twelve: Establishing a Procedure for Additional Positions

In considering the possibility of authorizing additional positions (such as assistant association manager, office assistant, etc.) to assist in the day-to-day operations of the association, the board should take into account both the resources available, as well as whether there is a need for the position.

While the board has the authority to allow for additional positions, it is the association manager who fills the positions. Furthermore, if additional positions are allowed for and filled, the association manager still ensures that all of the duties of his/her position are carried out. Eligibility for Membership in the USBC is open to every person in the United States without exception.
