

Presents the
ALBERTA E. CROWE
STAR OF TOMORROW

$6,000 Scholarship

Alberta E. Crowe, a seven-term president of the Women's International Bowling Congress, was recognized by her peers not only for great service but great leadership and depth of character. Her dedicated efforts brought improvements in member services, competition opportunities and leadership training for women.

Under Crowe's direction, the Star of Tomorrow annual honor for young women bowlers was launched in 1961. When the original sponsor withdrew support, Crowe personally took on responsibility for expenses related to the recognition, which became known as the Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow award. WIBC assumed sponsorship for the award upon Crowe's retirement in 1981 and added a scholarship component in 1985.

Previous winners of the Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow award include Judy Soutar (1963), Mildred Ignizio (1967), Susie Reichley (1969), Donna Adamek (1975), Nikki Gianulias (1978), Tish Johnson (1980), Becky Kregling (1985), Lynda Norry (now Lynda Barnes – 1988), Liz Johnson (1993), Kassy Hyman (now Kassy Golden – 1995), Diandra Hyman (now Diandra Asbaty – 1998), Amy Rocco (now Amy Stolz – 1999), Melissa Bellinder (2001), and Amanda Burgoyne (2004).

This scholarship is awarded annually to a female USBC member.

The Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow Award annually recognizes star qualities in a female high school senior or college student who competes in the sport of bowling. Star qualities include distinguished certified bowling performances on local, regional, state and national levels, academic achievement and extracurricular involvement. The award winner will receive a $6,000 scholarship. This scholarship will be formally presented at the annual USBC Convention. USBC will pay travel and hotel expenses for the winner and one guest to attend the award ceremony.

The United States Bowling Congress presents this prestigious award and scholarship in memory of Alberta E. Crowe, who served as president of the Women's International Bowling Congress for 21 years.
