

USBC

United States Bowling Congress

Presents the Annual Zeb

$2,500 Scholarship

Jim Zebehazy served as the executive director of the Young American Bowling Alliance from October of 1996 through December 31, 2004, when the organization merged with the American Bowling Congress, Women's International Bowling Congress, and USA Bowling to form the United States Bowling Congress. Under Zebehazy's leadership, YABA successfully implemented new programs and services, including a national magazine for youth bowlers, the Junior Gold program and what is now known as the USBC Junior Gold Championships.

The USBC Annual Zeb Scholarship was launched in 2005.

This scholarship is awarded annually to one USBC Youth member.

The Annual Zeb Scholarship is awarded to a USBC Youth member who achieves academic success and gives back to their community through service. One person will be selected to receive a $2,500 scholarship, which will be managed through the USBC's SMART Program. The Annual Zeb Scholarship will be formally presented at the USBC Junior Gold Championships award ceremony. USBC will pay travel and hotel expenses for the winner and one guest to attend the award ceremony. The selection is based on the candidate's grades, academic and community involvement, letters of reference and essay.

The Annual Zeb Scholarship commemorates the dedication and enthusiasm for youth bowling exemplified by Jim Zebehazy. Zeb was the executive director of the Young American Bowling Alliance for eight years prior to the organization's merger with the United States Bowling Congress. Under his leadership, YABA expanded the opportunities for its members to earn scholarships, develop their leadership abilities and compete in national championship tournaments in both scratch and handicap play.
